The pentinp fires that might have glowed with living words of cloquence in courts of justice, in the pulptl, or on the stage, or to-day consuming their victims in idiot and insane asylums, in domestic discontent and disgust, in prevish wailings about, in the vain pursuit of pleasure and fashion, longing for that is found only in action.

[If "action" is the one thing needful, may be it is not an hupertineure to suggest that the very best thing for the strong-minded sisterhood to do is to join the great army of women the Paraguay-an President Lopez is drumming up, in order to whip the Brazilians. "Noble girls perishing for something to do," it strikes us, would find a free field for their "fire and genths" on the Paramand to that end, therefore, why net open a recrniting office in this city?]

The Indian Peace Commissioners found the Navajo Indians on the brink of starvation, although the Government pays from $500,000 to $700,000 annually to feel them. But it seems that the contract for supplying rations was let to Mr. Perry Fuller, and he, after shaving it to the extent of 12 per cent, sub-let it to other persons. We dare say these developments will not materially improve the chances of his confirmation as Commissioner of Internal Revenue.
